Berlin Nov. 23.1

Berlin has had three days of local

Sistrpances and isolated cases of plundering, despite sharper police control. Butcher shops and bakeries have been demolished by gangs of so-called unemployed demanding food, but composed mostly of juveniles. More than a hundred arrests have been made. The police declare that the plundering is instigated by Communists. Open air meetings and processions through the streets have been forbidden by a special ordinance, and the police hope to be able to handle the problem of protecting shops.

There were two encounters between the unemployed and the police when crowds tried to enter the town halls in Pankow and Neu-Koeln, in the districts where the workers live. The police is visited several hundred shops looking for evidence of profiteering, and made the hundred arrests after comparing wholesale and retail prices. One hundred communist hunger strikers in whose behalf demonstrations before the Reichstag and Landtag were organized have now been removed to a hospital, where it is said that all except thirty have resumed taking food.

The entire visit of the Prince of Wales to the Bombay presidency has been a great personal triumph, says a message received at the India Office from the Governor of Bombay. The departure of the Prince for Baroda was made the occasion of another great demonstration, masses of people thronging the platform in an effort to get near the Prince's car made it difficult to get the train moving.

London, Nov. 23.—The Prince of Wales on Monday, the fifth day of his visit to Bombay, participated in a polo match, according to a Bombay despatch to the London Times. He was to have inspected 20,000 boy and girl scouts, but parents in the remote parts of the city were afraid to allow their children to pass through the recently disturbed area and the inspection was abandoned. Fears that the day would bring further disorders proved unnecessary. Hindus and Parsees paraded the streets waving white flags amid the cheers of the warring sects, and up to the time darkness came, when the Times despatch was filed, there was no trouble.
